

Face-to-Face Observation Instructional Appraisal Form

Note: It may not be possible to demonstrate all of these behaviors in one session.

Class: CA2020
 Faculty Member: HIST 1102-10
 Date: Jack Norton
4/15/13
 Dean: Michael Kirch

Student Engagement

- There is an atmosphere of mutual respect and diverse viewpoints.
- There is evidence of academic rigor.
- Questions are responded to appropriately. yes.
- There is active learning (simulation, role playing or other).
- There is appropriate application to the real world.
- Learning is monitored and instruction is adjusted.

✓ Observed

Comments

yes. Students formed groups quickly. - comfortable classroom atmosphere

grading rubric. - ✓

yes. topics dealt with depth

yes. Engaging.

- writing, group work with classmates.

Marx's Theory

What is podcast assignment? 100% (peer review) following class about

went over quiz. checks that assignments make sense

Overall Organization

- Lesson objectives are made clear to the students.
- Key points are summarized throughout the lesson.
- The lesson is related to past and future lessons.
- Terms are defined or background given as necessary.

Roadmap for class on handout - went straight to groups. provided a roadmap for the class period. Survey w/cellphones - mini lecture a lot of housekeeping - review/assignments

yes - writing assignment focused on modernity

- yes - Question about Marx's Theory of Surplus Value (equation)

Communication and Presentation

- Concepts are explained clearly. - yes.
- A variety of teaching techniques are used.
- Examples are given to clarify points.
- Instructor speaks with effective vocal quality, volume and rate.
- Technology use enhances learning.

- yes.

1 minute writing - review of quizzes

- yes - good use of examples (charts) Marx

yes - Very clear and articulate.

- review of quizzes on D2L

bubbl.us - concept map (?)

cell phone quiz (pollEV.com)

poll everywhere - cool -

PPT (terms)

A few people comment -

Arrived at 9:54.

Jack was at front of room. told students to pick up a sheet.

Had a question for a student about a book -

Worked on computer -

Started class on-time

Very organized

No one used a laptop?

|||||

Comments

Well organized lesson.
Great use of technology

Interactive classroom - how do you expand number who comment?

Did you define all the terms?

A lot of housekeeping.
Creative assignments.
Group work good

Is all the technology necessary - (busy)?

Very nice job in the classroom. Thank for all you do for Normandale.
Faculty Response

Signatures:

Faculty Member
Date

David L. Neuter
4/25/13

Dean of Division
Date

Michael K.
4/25/13