

Podcast Peer Reviews

Fill in this form, typed, with complete sentences. Bring two copies of the form to your small group next week.

Your name _____

Reporter's name _____

Your email _____

Reporter's email _____

1. Read the entire podcast through once, without making any marks.
2. While re-reading the podcast, underline what you thought the main point of the podcast.
3. Place a "*" next to areas where the story confused you.
4. Place a "c" next to areas you think need an in-text citation (a mention in the podcast itself).
5. Without looking or reading the podcast, what facts did you learn from it?
6. Did you feel your partner was fair in his or her presentation of the material? Why or why not?
7. How did all the parts of the podcast fit together?
8. Describe three things the reporter could do to make this podcast better, and three things you think they did well in their report.

Grade the podcast A-F:

Well written:	_____
Provides historical context:	_____
Interesting to the general listener:	_____
Fulfills the assignment:	_____